Learning How This Book Works

Are you ready to learn more about rabbits?

You have many interesting and exciting activities ahead in this book. You'll learn about rabbit parts, breeds, costs of raising a rabbit, how to care for a rabbit and much, much more. If you don't have a rabbit, some of the activities will help you decide what kind of rabbit might be best for you. Don't be afraid to jump right in and don't give up if the activity doesn't work right the first time. You're still learning, right? The most important thing is trying.

Pilot 9/15

Each chapter teaches skills about related topics. Through a short activity, you'll learn rabbit, life and science skills.

Your Project Helper

Your project helper is on your team, supporting you and making learning more fun. This person may be a parent, project leader or advisor, a neighbor or an older friend who enjoys rabbits. The choice is yours. As you do the activities, you'll discuss what you did and the questions in the "Bounding Ahead" part of each activity with your helper. Sometimes your helper will need to work with you to find people, groups, events, magazines and books to help complete an activity. Once you have successfully completed each activity, your helper will date and initial your achievement program.

Write the name and phone number of your project helper here:
